INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REVIEW REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center
100 W. Texas Avenue, Floor 2
Ruston, Louisiana 71270

I have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of entity management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

My responsibility is to conduct the review engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. Those standards require me to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance as a basis for reporting whether I am aware of any material modifications that should be made to the financial statements for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. I believe that the results of my procedures provide a reasonable basis for my conclusion.

I am required to be independent of Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. and to meet my other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to my review.

Accountant's Conclusion

Based on my review, I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying supplemental information included in the Schedule of Compensation, Benefits, and Other Payments to Agency Head is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The supplementary information has been subjected to the review procedures applied in my review of the basic financial statements. I am not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the supplementary information. I have not audited the supplementary information and do not express an opinion on such information.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2025

The Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. is a Louisiana nonprofit corporation chartered in June, 2001. Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center covers a five parish (i.e., Bienville, Claiborne, Jackson, Lincoln, and Union) area in north central Louisiana. This corporation is organized to assist survivors of sexual and violent crimes and their families and to lessen the trauma for child victims of sexual and severe abuse. Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center is exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The corporation received their tax exempt status in January, 2002.

The Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. has a cooperative endeavor agreement with the Office of the District Attorney of the Third Judicial District. The District Attorney is responsible for the prosecution of criminal defendants in the Third Judicial District Court who are arrested and charged with various crimes, including, but not limited to those involving sexual and physical assaults and violence upon adults and children. The center provides a number of interventions and services for victims of crimes and is a valuable resource to the Office of the District Attorney. The Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center subgrants most of the grants they receive to the Office of the District Attorney.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

CASH

Cash, which is held in non-interest bearing demand deposit accounts, is unrestricted and available for general operating purposes. Management believes Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash. For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the center considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INVESTMENTS

Investments are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met (either by the passage of time or by use) in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. There were no investments being held at December 31, 2025.

CONTRIBUTIONS AND REVENUE RECOGNITION

Contributions received are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions or net assets without donor restrictions depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

All donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Revenues from grants are recognized once the performance obligations are satisfied. Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center as a right to reimbursement under the grant generally corresponding to the incurring of grant related costs of the center or a subrecipient of the grant, or when earned under the terms of the grant. An accrual is made when eligible costs are incurred.

Grants that are determined to be conditional and received prior to meeting the conditions are classified as a refundable advance until the conditions have been substantially met.

See accountant's report.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTE 1- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

PROMISES TO GIVE

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center that is, in substance, unconditional.

FIXED ASSETS AND DEPRECIATION

Purchased fixed assets are capitalized at cost. Donations of fixed assets are capitalized at their estimated fair value at the date contributed. Such donations are reported as contributions without donor restrictions unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire fixed assets are reported as contributions with donor restrictions. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long these donated assets must be maintained, the Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service. The center reclassifies net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions at that time. Fixed assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset, which is five years for furniture and equipment.

INCOME TAXES

The Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center, Inc.'s Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for the years ending in 2024, 2023, and 2022 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed. As of June 26, 2026, the Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center's Form 990 for the year ending December 31, 2025 had not been filed.

NOTE 2 - CASH

At December 31, 2025, the Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center has cash totaling $72,590, as non-interest bearing demand deposits. The deposits are carried at cost which approximates market value. At December 31, 2025 the center has $72,590 in deposits (collected bank balances). The entire December 31, 2025 bank balance is secured by federal depository insurance.

NOTE 3 - DUE FROM GRANTORS

At December 31, 2025, the Pine Hills Children's Advocacy Center had amounts due from grantors of $78,710 which were for grants passed through to a subrecipient who had incurred eligible expenses for reimbursement from the grants. This amount will then be reimbursed to the subrecipient, which is presented as Due to Subrecipient.
